

Decentralized Clinical Trial Services for Pediatric Rare Disease

Since 2020, Naven has provided in-home nursing care, high-touch program management, and trial supplies management for a study with 16 unique clinical trial pediatric patients suffering from a rare disease causing physical and cognitive challenges, in partnership with study sponsor, CRO, central pharmacy, and sites.

END-TO-END PROGRAM SUPPORT

Clinical Trial
Expertise

Dedicated Program
Management Support

Comprehensive Warehouse
& Supply Coordination

Dedicated Nurses,
Compassionate Care

EXTRAORDINARY RESULTS

35 Nurses Trained on Program Protocol

Individualized training on trial protocol for all nurses engaged in study to ensure adherence to protocol and high-quality care delivery.

94% Study Retention
Rate Across 15 Subjects

24/7 on-call availability for conflict resolution, flexible scheduling support, and facilitation of seamless and timely coordination across all care delivery partners involved in the study to ensure retention and excellence in patient care delivery.

Only 3 Missed Visits in 6 Years With Seamless
Supply Management

Sourcing, storage, distribution, and end-to-end management of trial supplies, including pumps and temperature monitors, to help ensure success of each visit & minimize risk of protocol deviation.

2,000+ Patient Visits in the Home

Providing weekly, high-touch 5-6 hour visits in the home and high-quality, compassionate care.